

“Workshop Discussion on Optimal Agronomical and Processing Practices in the Tea Industry ”

Under the patronage of Hon. Navin Dissanayake, Minister of Plantation Industries, the Workshop Discussion on Optimal Agronomical and Processing Practices in the Tea Industry was held at Waters Edge, Battaramulla on 16 March 2018 with the participation of high level officials of plantation companies, regional plantation company officials, field chiefs and scientists from the Tea Research Board.

Improving the quality of products in the regional plantation industry in future, increasing productivity and value addition were some of the major topics discussed. Furthermore, identification of criteria to be maintained in the plantation sector and action to be taken in future in relation to sustainable development too were discussed at the workshop.